- (c) if so, the details thereof, especially in respect of Assam?

Answer

MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. VENKAIAH NAIDU)

(a to c): On introduction of the Sampurna Gramin Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) with effect from 25th September, 2001, the Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS) became a part of the SGRY for the remaining part of the last year. From 1st April 2002, the Scheme stands fully merged with the SGRY. Under the Programme wages are paid partly in cash and partly in foodgrains. Accordingly, in addition to the cash component, foodgrains worth Rs. 2500 crores were also allocated to the States/Uts. Because the SGRY was launched in the middle of the financial year (2001-02), 636.27 thousand tonnes of wheat and 1056.36 thousand tonnes of rice valued at Rs. 1719.37 crores could be allocated. The State/Ut-wise details including Assam are given at Annexure. The implementing agencies i.e. Panchayati Raj Institutions/DRDAs lift foodgrains as per their allocation from FCI Depots for distribution among the workers.

Annexure referred to in Part (a) to (c) of Lok Sabha Unstarred Question No.7243 due for reply on 14.5.2002.
